To Whom it May Concern,

The purpose of this letter is to alert the Commission to a violation of federal election law taking place in central Florida. In short, I believe a state political party, with no corresponding federal committee¹, federal account, or federal fundraising, is engaging in "Federal Election Activity" by paying (or receiving in-kind) electronic billboard space near Orlando specifically advocating the election of a federal candidate² and indicating, by the disclaimer, that the ads were paid for by the state political party³

The Florida "TEA Party", Committee ID: C00472456, filed its Statement of Organization on 12/28/2009. It subsequently filed a notice of termination letter on 3/3/2010, and had the termination of the Committee approved on 3/24/2010 by the FEC. In addition, in the notice of termination letter, it was stated that, "There has been no activity for the Tea Party since the filing of the Statement of Organization."

On a recent trip to Orlando Florida, heading eastbound on I-4, I noticed an electronic billboard that rotated ads with the following (photos attached) advertisements:

"Elect County Commissioner Randy Wilkinson, Tea Party Nominee for the US Congress, District 12" with the "Florida TEA Party" logo to the right of the language, and "www.ElectRandy.com" below. In addition, the disclaimer read, "Political Advertisement paid for and approved by the Tea Party."

Next displayed was "Dunmire for Congress" and "www.floridateaparty.us" and the Florida TEA Party logo to the left. Same disclaimer.

Seeing as the Florida Tea Party is registered by the same Fred O'Neal that registered and dissolved the TEA Party as a federal committee, and the TEA Party has stated that they have had no federal activity since their creation, and these billboards are paid for by a state political party known as the Florida "TEA" Party, and they advocate for the election of a specific federal candidate, I feel that multiple rule violations are present as well as illegal contributions to federal candidates using state and perhaps corporate money.

I hereby request the FEC investigate this matter before more illegal advertisements or expenditures take place.

Sincerely,

Dena Stebbins DeCamp
